

Huntingdon Canoe Club Inclusivity Policy

Huntingdon Canoe Club is a club run by the community for the community, all club coaches and officers are unpaid members of the community and volunteers who willingly give their time to help others develop in Paddlesport.

As such Huntingdon Canoe Club is committed, within the limits of its current facilities, to making Paddlesport accessible and welcomes paddlers regardless of their age, disability, gender, race, religion and belief or sexual orientation. We believe that participation in Paddlesport is for everyone, develops fitness, is fun and creates a sense of self esteem, a sense of achievement and a sense of belonging to a community of paddlers.

In support of this Huntingdon Canoe Club has:-

- Appointed a Club Welfare Officer
- Has a Child Protection and Vulnerable Adult policy
- Has the above Inclusivity policy.

All members should show respect and understanding for the rights, safety and welfare of others, and conduct themselves in a way that reflects the above principles.
